The Mercies of God

The mercies of God!
 What a theme for my song.
 Oh! I never could number them o'er;
 They're more than the stars
 in the heavenly dome,
 or the sands of the wave beaten shore.

They greet me at morn
 when I waken from sleep,
 And they gladden my heart at the noon;
 They follow me on into shades of the night,
 When the day with its labor is done.

His angels of mercy encompass me 'round,
 Wheresoever my pathway may lead;
 Each turn of the road some new token reveals
 Oh! For me like is blessed indeed.

His goodness and mercy will follow me still,
 Even on to the end of my way;
 I have His sure promise and that cannot fail,
 That His mercy endureth for aye.

For mercies so great, what return can I make?
 For mercies so constant and sure?
 I'll love Him, I'll serve Him, with all that I have—
 As long as my life shall endure.
