Redeeming Love

Men speak of love, an earthly love,
 it's mentioned more each day;
 Yet many spurn the greatest love
 and go in their own way.

The greatest love is this,
 that God spared not so great a cost,
 And sent His Son to buy us back,
 to save us who were lost.

No man can see a greater love,
 no book can e'er record,
 No sacrifice can be compared to that of our dear Lord.

Christ died for us and rose again;
 the debt of sin was paid.
 To trust in Him, a step of faith,
 is all that must be made.

Redeeming love, a greater love
 no man can e'er impart;
 Redeeming love, one never knows
 till Christ is in his heart.
